

DEGREE EVALUATION

---

Degree Works is the degree evaluation and audit tool available to students, faculty and advisors to view progress toward degree completion. It assists in planning coursework and includes a “what-if” feature to evaluate an academic record against other UNH majors when considering a change.

It is a student's responsibility to monitor degree progress and ensure all requirements are met.