

GERMAN (GERM)

German is the most widely spoken language in Europe, and Germany plays a leading role in a number of areas: EU and global trade and policy, fine arts, alternative energy and sustainability, engineering, philosophy. With their rich cultural and intellectual history, as well as one of the world's primary export-driven economies, the German-speaking countries offer unique career opportunities for globally minded students and citizens.

Summer Study in Berlin, Germany

The UNH German Program manages a summer program in Berlin, Germany. During their study in Berlin, students can earn between 4 and 12 credits. The program provides students with an immersion experience in the German language and culture. Students receive language instruction at the appropriate level (elementary, intermediate, or advanced) at the BSI Private Language School in central Berlin. No prior German language study is required. On designated weekday afternoons, students participate in cultural excursions and discussions with the on-site UNH faculty member. Through the UNH Berlin summer program, students receive UNH credit and can fulfill the World Cultures Discovery requirement. In line with UNH's goals to educate students to become global citizens, this immersion program gives students insight into what it means to experience a different culture and language. For more information visit the COLA Center for Study Abroad.

Other Programs

The University allows students to attend approved study abroad programs for UNH credit at schools in Germany and Austria. Students may attend accredited one- or two-semester programs at universities in cities like Munich, Vienna, Berlin, Heidelberg, Freiburg or Salzburg. Most study abroad programs require a minimum of two years of college German. For details, see the coordinator of German or the foreign studies coordinator at the UNH Global Education Center. Internships with a German firm or organization may also be taken for credit (see GERM 595 Internship (p. 1)). Internships must be approved ahead of time in collaboration with an advisor in the German program. Financial aid applies to all approved programs.
