Description

The study of history is an essential element of the liberal education. Studying history provides both an awareness of the past and the tools to evaluate and express one's knowledge.

Requirements

- Academic policies related to minors
- A minor in history consists of five courses (20 credits).
- A minimum grade of C- or better and 2.0 grade-point average is required in courses that the Department of History approves for the minor.
- Courses taken on a pass/fail basis may not be used for the minor.
- No more than 12 credits in 400-level courses may be used for this minor.
- For transfer students, no more than two transfer courses, or 8 transfer credits, may be used toward the minor.
